250th Anniversary Celebration Meeting

The Manheim Borough Council invites you to join in the planning and organization of Manheim's 250th Anniversary Celebration!

Manheim was founded in 1762 by Henry William Stiegel, one of Lancaster County's most celebrated characters. Stiegel purchased the land and set out to build an industrial empire in Manheim where he began Stiegel Glassworks.

This meeting will take place on Wednesday, January 27th starting at 7:00 pm at the Manheim Train Station located at 210 South Charlotte

Street. The meeting is open to the public and all community residents, business leaders and civic groups are encourage to come and share your ideas or find out how you can participate in making this celebration a year to remember!

"We would like to see representation from various organizations and individuals of our community to help visualize the semiquincentennial celebration of our town", stated Matthew Parido, Manheim Borough Manager.

If you need further information, please contact the borough office at (717) 665-2461.
