Business Spotlight

Haldeman Mechanical Inc.

Haldeman Mechanical, Inc. is a third-generation plumbing, heating, cooling and water conditioning company located in Manheim. Founded in 1939 by Frank L. Haldeman, the company is owned today by Mark Haldeman, Frank's grandson, and has 12 employees. In 2008, the company expanded with the purchase of Steve Splain Heating and Air Conditioning of Columbia. Through three generations, the company has maintained its commitment to residential and light commercial services.

Celebrating 71 years in 2010, they also provide equipment sales, new construction and remodeling services, and 24-hour emergency service. Haldeman Mechanical also offers several levels of service agreements to help in maintaining warranties, maximizing equipment life and efficiency and reducing repair costs. Haldeman Mechanical is a member of the Manheim Chamber of Commerce, the Lancaster Chamber of Commerce and the Building Industry Association. When you hire Haldeman Mechanical, you are hiring a name that has been well respected in the service industry since 1939.

Mark Haldeman is a life-long resident of Lancaster County. He lives in Landisville with his wife Karen and has five children and four grandchildren. He is a member of the Landisville Church of God where he chairs the Property Commission and is also a 25-years member of the Manheim Sertoma Club.
