FREE SEMINAR

Get Connected!

Social Media for Small Businesses

The Manheim Downtown Development Group invites you to a free seminar on Friday, June 25th at 7:30am to learn about the benefits of Social Media in small business.

Ken Mueller, proprietor of Inkling Media, a Lancaster-based social media marketing company, will provide guidance on how social media can benefit small businesses, and how to get started. Mueller has 30 years of experience in the media industry, having worked extensively in the radio industry as well as social media. He was the Director of Media Resources for the Center for Parent/Youth Understanding and spent 13 years as the Radio Curator for the Museum of Television & Radio (now the Paley Center for Media). He worked on-air at various radio stations for many years and was an Instructor in the College of Communications at Penn State University. Mueller is also an Adjunct Instructor at the Pennsylvania College of Art & Design, teaching continuing education classes in social media. He has written about radio, music, and a variety of other topics for a number of print and online publications. He has been interviewed by numerous local and national media outlets including CNN, FoxNews, USA Today, The New York Times, Time Magazine, and Readers Digest.

For more information or to register, please call 665-1762 or email Doreen at info@manheimdowntown.org.
