11/29 Christmas Tree Installation on the Square

Location: Gazebo at Market Square

Time: 8:45am – 3:00 pm

Volunteers Needed! Once again, we will install a grand cut tree on the Square to herald this special holiday and our coming event for the following weekend. Please give consideration to help as many hands make light work. We will need volunteers for various tasks. We will meet at the Gazebo at 8:45 am for the tree cutting. The installation of the tree will follow starting at 10:30 am. At 1:00 pm we begin to decorate the tree and get into the holiday spirit! Please feel free to help with any part of this day!

Message from the Main Street Manager:

What a great weekend! Manheim Unchained was a huge success! Thanks to all who broke the chain on Saturday and shopped only independently locally-owned businesses! As we go forward into the holiday season, keep the unchained reasons in your mind. Here are some reasons to shop downtown and “break the chain”...

- Shopping locally puts money back into your local economy.
- Downtown businesses create environment sustainability which makes the downtown a more friendly, walkable and vibrant community.
- Locally owned businesses contribute more of their business income to community organizations and events!

Thanks and hope you all have a great week!!!
