Business Spotlight...

Snack Attack: Dogs on the Manheim Square

Downtown Manheim has another business to celebrate! Starting on Monday, April 5th, Ryan Hershey, Owner of Snack Attack will bring his Hot Dog cart to Manheim's historic square.

It all began with an invitation to a product seminar on automated vending. Attention piqued Ryan's interest not only to attend, but purchase several mechanical vending machines.

Operating out of the great town of Manheim, PA, Snack Attack Vending was born. They specialize in small mechanical and large commercial Snack & Drink Vending Machines.

In 2010, they expanded the business to include Hot Dog Cart Catering Services. Menu items will include:

Hot Dogs, Smoke Sausage, Bagged Chips, Planters Peanuts, Lance Crackers, Honey Buns, Donuts, and Drinks. Like toppings on your dogs? Not to worry, Ryan will offer Chili, Sauerkraut, Onions, Cheese, and Relish.

Hours of operation will be Monday through Friday from 10:00am until 3:00pm (weather permitting).

The community is welcome to a Grand Opening at 10:30am on Monday, April 5th to welcome Ryan to the neighborhood. Take a break from work or shopping downtown and enjoy and visit for some of the area's best hot dogs in town.
