

Simon Financial Services Volunteer of the year 2010

The importance of volunteers to our community cannot be overestimated.

The Simon Financial Service Volunteer of the Year awards were established to recognize individuals in the community who dedicate their time and involvement as a volunteer to our Manheim Community. Help us honor two volunteers in our community for outstanding service. Each recipient will be awarded the Simon Financial Services Volunteer of the Year award and receive a substantial financial contribution. The adult's recipient financial award will be donated on to their behalf to any non-profit Manheim Community organization. The youth recipient will receive a financial contribution dedicated to their higher education.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Nominees must have volunteered in the Manheim Community for at least one year.
- Nominations must be received by August 5, 2010 and mailed to
Mr. Christopher Simon
Simon Financial Services
104 East High Street
Manheim, PA 17545

Selection Process:

A panel of judges from the Manheim Community will rank the volunteer nominees based on the following criteria:

- Ability to help in the community.
- Overall impact on the community
- Involvement in activities.
- Leadership role in initiating programs.
- Personal growth from being a volunteer.
- Length and frequency of service.

Awards will be announced at the Taste of Manheim—Dinner and A Movie held on Saturday, August 21st at 7:30pm
