BUSINESS SPOTLIGHT...

BUCH FUNERAL HOME

Buch Funeral Home is more than a landmark at 21 Market Square in Manheim. Over the years it has become an indispensable friend to families in need - a source of comfort during difficult times and a trusted provider of modern funeral services.

Director of Family Services. The original business, which dates back to 1899, began as a furniture and undertaking business owned by Beck and Hammer and was eventually renamed T.S. Beck & Son. In 1992, John Buch sold his funeral business to Theodore J. Beck, a hand picked 7th generation funeral director that he knew would carry on his philosophy of service.

When John F. Buch bought the property from Paul Beck, back in 1969, his vision was to provide caring, compassionate service in a modern funeral home setting to the people of Manheim. Having earned a sterling reputation for doing just that, John Buch's business grew very quickly.

Today, the Buch Funeral Home is proud to be a valued partner and friend to the residents of Manheim.

Buch, who has been associated with the 100-year-old business on Market Square since 1949, is currently the
