BUSINESS IN THE SPOTLIGHT: WORLEY & OBETZ, INC.

Worley & Obetz, Inc. has been serving Lancaster County for over half a century. Started in 1946 by Raymond C. Worley and Robert W. Obetz, Sr., they have evolved into Central PA's local Total Home Comfort™ Company. Robert W. Obetz, Jr., current Chairman of the Board is a third-generation owner who entered the business in 1970. Current President and CEO, Jeff Lyons, is leading their new culture with a commitment of communication, consistency and accountability.

Worley & Obetz, Inc. offers a wide array of products and services. They also offer Solar equipment to heat you home and water as well as geothermal heatpumps, both are better for the environment and help America move towards energy independence.

As a Central Pennsylvania leader in renewable energy and clean technology, Worley & Obetz is once again has expanded their energy service reach. Now, Worley & Obetz is strengthening their commitment to total home and business comfort by providing customers with the alternative power services of wind, solar, and geothermal energy.

These technologies share a common thread—they are natural energy sources that supply our energy needs in a sustainable way. Renewables can transform our energy system to one that is cleaner and less dependent on foreign oil and other fossil fuels, strengthen our economy, and promote a healthier environment.

To learn more about Renewable energy, please visit their website at www.worleyobetz.com or call 665-6891 to schedule an appointment to visit their new Renewable Energy Center located on Doe Run Road.

MANHEIM HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Manheim Historical Society was founded in 1964 and is dedicated to preserving the past for the future. They concentrate on the preservation of some of the landmarks that have characterized the borough of Manheim and surrounding areas, as well as collecting local historical artifacts.

On May 12, Market on the Square, the Society will have the Railroad Station and the Fasig House open for the public. Stop in to see these beautiful historical buildings!

In addition to the Railroad Station and the Fasig house, the Society also maintains the Town Clock, Heritage Center, Trolley Car, and the Keath House.

The Society is staffed by an all volunteers and relies solely on business partners, contributions and individual member dues to support its programs and maintains its properties. If you would like to find out more information on the Historical Society, Please visit their website at www.manheimpa.com
